

St John of Jerusalem School does Black History Month 2017 in style!

The Black History Month Exhibition and cultural evening yesterday really showed that the weeks and weeks of preparation really paid off. From Nursery to Year 6, pupils showed

their artistic and written skills through poetry, factual information and musical pieces on their chosen countries. The displays were vibrant and extremely exciting to read and look at! A huge thank you to all pupils for their hard work, commitment and dedication to the Africa Project.

The exhibition was visited by many parents, carers, staff and even the Speaker for Hackney Council; Councillor Soraya Adejare. She expressed her admiration for our school's focus and energy during Black History Month.

Well done and thank you to all staff, parents and carers who contributed to make this event such a huge success.

Finally, don't forget about the Black History Month Flag competition which Hackney Council is organising. The winning pupil will have their flag made and it will be on display during BHM 2018 around Hackney...IT COULD BE YOU!!
