

New Beginnings!

We have new children starting in our Nursery this week; Joshua, Le Manne, Mikyala and Naya.

The older children have been looking after the younger children, showing them how to share, take turns, put on their aprons and comfort them when they are upset.

Destiny enjoys playing 'dress up'

Martinee shares his toys with Joshua.

Naya watches Le Manne drawing and wants to have a go, she asks for a pen and Le Manne kindly lets her have a turn.

Welcome back to school

It has been a pleasure welcoming back pupils new and familiar to St John of Jerusalem Primary School after the summer break.

We hope everyone had a restful break. The children are now settling down into their routines.

This week the school has been looking at authors from the past.

From Dr Zeus to Lewis Carroll, we have created some fantastic writing.

Please feel free to have a look!

In another moment down went Alice after it, never once considering how in the world she was to get out again.
