This Week in Year 4

For the summer term, Year 4's focus in religion is Islam.

The children have been learning about how Islam was founded as well as the key beliefs and ideas held by Muslims.

This week, the children learnt that Muslims do not draw images of Muhammad or Allah, but instead use calligraphy to decorate.

Year 4 were tasked to write out the six key beliefs in Islam using calligraphy writing.

MAY

FUN FACTS

Did you know that May Day in the UK originated from pagan Anglo-Saxon customs marking the beginning of summer?

In 1890, the May Bank Holiday became associated with International Workers Day and was named an official holiday in 1978!
